

PhD seminar report template

Date of Seminar:

Speaker:

Title of presentation:

Your report should address the following:

Brief summary of the research presentation. The summary should include aims and hypothesis of the research, key experiments and methods, results and conclusion.

What is the potential avenues that your area of research that might overlap with the speaker's research interest?

How your research can benefit from this presentation?